

MANY THINGS GOING ON AT EXPOSITION TODAY

More Special Events Scheduled Than for Any One Day of Fair Period.

GREATER NORFOLK CELEBRATION

Large Crowd of People From Other Side of Roads Will be in Attendance —Governor of Tennessee and Party Here for State Day—Tercentennial Notes.

This day will be one of the greatest days of the Exposition period, both from the standpoint of attendance and of importance and interesting special events. There will not be a moment of the time from the opening of the gates in the morning until the closing at night that will not be occupied by some special attraction.

In addition to being known as "Greater Norfolk Day," October 25th will be long remembered as being the day during which more special day exercises were celebrated than upon any other day during the term of the exposition. The following are the special days to be celebrated:

Greater Norfolk day.
Confederate Veterans day.
Tennessee day.
Roanoke day.
Real Estate day.
Phi Beta Pi day.
Columbia, Georgia, day.
Americus, Georgia, day.
Fuel, Cement and Alcohol day.
Chappell-Armas reunion.
At 9:30 o'clock this morning there will be a concert by the Exposition band at the main entrance stand.
Confederate Veterans' Day.
Veterans, Sons of Veterans, military companies, guests, sponsors, maids of honor and Confederate choirs will assemble at the main entrance shortly after 10 o'clock.

The parade will be met at the inside lane gate by Lieut. Harry Newton Cootes, military secretary of the exposition, and escorted to the reviewing stand on Lee Parade, where at 11 a.
m. will occur a parade which will be reviewed by Lieutenant Governor El-lyson of Virginia, Commander W. M.
Stewart, and officers of the grand camp of Virginia and United Confederate veterans; Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Exposition; Mr. Alvah H. Martin, director general; Major General Frederick D. Grant, U.
S. A., Capt. Robert E. Lee and Admiral P. F. Harrington, U. S. N.

The following will be the order of troops in column, Oliver H. Perry grand marshal:

23d U. S. Infantry.
Battery D, 3d U. S. field artillery.
2d Squadron, 12th U. S. cavalry.
U. S. Naval Post band.
71st Virginia Infantry.
Honor Military school.
Confederate veterans (respective camps to form on pier according to number.)

Sons of Confederate Veterans (respective camps to form on pier according to number also.) Exercises at Auditorium.
After the parade in the morning the grand camp will convene at the Auditorium, where the following program will take place at 11:30 o'clock.

Tennessee.

Music—The Star Spangled Banner.
At half past ten there will take place a parade and review of all the troops on the grounds in honor of Tennessee Day, Confederate Veterans' Day and Greater Norfolk Day. It is expected that the governor of Tennessee will, if possible, review the parade from the grand stand on Lee's Parade.

Greater Norfolk Day Exercises.

STARTED TROUBLE ON CAR.

Negro Enraged Because Conductor Wouldn't Stop in Middle of Block.

Because the motorman refused to stop a car for him in the middle of the block, Robert Jones, a negro, started a small sized riot on a trolley car near the shipyard yesterday morning.
The car was crowded with negroes and when Jones attacked Conductor Webb, practically all of them joined in the fight. The motorman came to the conductor's rescue and the negroes were held at bay until Patrolman Oliver arrived on the scene.

The officer arrested Jones and the negro was fined $6.50 by Justice Brown in the police court yesterday morning.

CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Judge Waddill Will Render Decision in Damage Suit Case Later.

After hearing the argument in the suit of Hugh N. Page against the Old Dominion Steamship Company for $100,000 damages for injuries received while leaving the company's steamer Cerulea at this city, Judge Waddill in the Federal Court at Norfolk has taken the case under advisement.

He will render his decision later this week.

TO MUCH WIND FOR CLAY TARGET SHOOTERS

Marksman at Exposition Took Only One Hundred Shots Each Yesterday.

REGAN MADE THE HIGHEST SCORE

Young Man Who Formerly Lived Here Took First Place Among the Amateurs—Number of Famous Professionals on Hand to Participate in the Sport.

Although the wind was too high to permit the marksmen to appear at the best, the first day of the Jamestown Clay Target tournament, which began yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock on the end of the Deepwater pier at the Exposition, was the occasion of some clever shooting. Because of the unfavorable weather conditions, the contestants took only one hundred shots each, and it will be necessary to make up the additional 100 today or tomorrow.

The tournament will close tomorrow evening, when a number of cash prizes and a handsome silver loving cup will be presented by the Exposition to the amateur making the best average for the entire series.

Noted shooters from all over the country, including a number of professionals representing the large powder concerns, are on hand for the event, and if the weather is favorable today visitors at the Exposition will have an opportunity of seeing the best clay target shooting match ever pulled off in this section.

Yesterday the highest amateur average was made by Mr. M. J. Regan of Baltimore, who broke 89 in 100 targets. This does not approach Mr. Re-gan's record, but was a very good score to be made under such unfavorable weather conditions. Mr. Regan formerly lived here and he served his time as a machinist at the shipyard.
He is a brother of Mr. Regan of the local clothing firm of Oldewurtel & Regan.

Following are some of the best scores made by the professionals:
J. M. Hawkins of Baltimore, 96; W.
R. Crosby of O'Fallon, Ill., champion of the world, 93; J. R. Taylor of Columbus, Ohio, 95; Mr. Barclay of Illinois, 95; W. Taylor of Nevada, 93; E. L. Kerr 95; Lester Gorman, Aberdeen, 89.

The shooting will begin again this morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is expected that several well known shots of this city will go over to participate.

CRUISERS ARE NOW ON WAY TO RIO JANEIRO

According to the Schedule the Washington and Tennessee Should Reach Magellan, Nov. 20.

Having finished loading coal and supplies at Port of Spain, Trinidad, the United States armored cruisers, Tennessee and Washington sailed from that port yesterday for Rio Janeiro, where the next stop for coal and provisions will be made.

The big cruisers left Hampton Roads for San Francisco at noon on Saturday, October 12 and arrived at Port of Spain on October 18, having averaged about 14.5 knots an hour on the voyage. The cruisers will reach Rio Janeiro about November 1 and will leave that port about November 8. The next stop will be made at Punta Adenas, Straits of Magellan, where the vessels will arrive about November 20.

Y. M. C. A. LITERARY SOCIETY

Temporary Organization for the Winter Season Effectuated.

The Literary Society of the Young Men's Christian Association met last night and effected a temporary organization for the winter season. Another meeting will be held next Monday night, at which time regular officers will be chosen.

Everything possible will be done to make this one of the most successful seasons in the history of the society.
Any young man, whether he is a member of the association or not, is eligible to membership in the society, and no fee or dues are attached.

Suits the Kidneys

Simple Home Receipt for Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatic Troubles That Beats All the Patent Medicines.

Go to your druggist and ask for:
Concentrated Barkola Compound 1 ounce. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic ½ ounce. Aromatic Elixir 4 ounces.

Mix them up and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. As soon as the headache, bowel pain, headache and tired feeling have left you, do not throw away any of the remedy that may be left in the bottle, but reduce the dose to two teaspoon-fuls daily and continue until it is all gone. By following this suggestion you will help to strengthen your kidneys and bladder, a wise thing to do for these organs are so delicate that they really should be given a few days invigorating treatment even after every symptom of special disease has disappeared.

QUEEN ANNE'S LAST TRIP.

Vessel Will Be Taken Off Richmond Line.

The sidewheel passenger steamer Queen Anne, which has been plying between Newport News, Norfolk and Richmond for two or three months will make her last trip in this service today, the lessee having decided to take her off the route.

When the Exposition opened the Queen Anne was chartered by the Newport News and Old Point Railway company for the Exposition period and for several months she plied between Old Point and Pine Beach.
Later she was used as an excursion boat around the Roads and then she was put on a three times a week schedule on James River.

Waives Examination.
Julius Lipscomb, the young man who shot Algie Hardy a negro, two weeks ago, was arraigned before Justice Henry Jones in Bloodfield yesterday morning on the charge of murder.

Through his attorney, A. C. Peachy, the accused waived the preliminary hearing and was held for the grand jury in the Warwick county Circuit Court. He was released on $500 bail.

Great suffering is the lot of all women, who neglect the health of their womanly organs. No reason to do so, any more than to neglect a sore throat, colic, or any other disease, that the right kind of medicine will cure. Take
